

Hike Korea – Participant Disclaimer & Acknowledgement Form

Please read carefully before joining any hiking tour.

By signing this form, you confirm that you understand and accept the terms below.

1. Understanding the Nature of the Activity

I understand that hiking in Korea involves physical activity and may include walking on steep, uneven, or slippery terrain; exposure to changing weather; and travel in rural or remote areas. I accept that participation involves inherent risks, including but not limited to falls, dehydration, insect bites, vehicle travel, or unpredictable natural events.

2. Personal Responsibility

I confirm that:

- I am physically and mentally fit to take part in this activity.
- will follow all safety instructions from Hike Korea guides and staff.
- will inform the guide before the hike of any medical conditions, allergies, or injuries that may affect my participation.
- am responsible for carrying my own insurance covering medical treatment, evacuation, and travel interruptions.

3. Acknowledgement of Risk

I understand that while Hike Korea takes all reasonable care to provide a safe experience, some risks cannot be eliminated. I voluntarily accept full responsibility for my own safety and well-being during the hike.

4. Limitation of Liability

I agree that Hike Korea, its guides, staff, and partners are not liable for any injury, loss, damage, or expense arising from participation in this activity, except where caused by proven negligence. This includes (but is not limited to) personal injury, loss of personal property, or travel delays due to weather or unforeseen circumstances.

5. Agreement and Signature

By signing below, I confirm that I have read and understood this document, and that I freely and voluntarily agree to all the terms above.
